

NE MI entrepreneurs & small business owners invited to business resources event

Phil Heimerl

Feb 27, 2025

Young startup coffee cafe owner open and welcome customer. New small business owner.

By Phil Heimert

The Michigan Small Business Development Center (SBDC) is hosting an upcoming presentation geared for entrepreneurs and small business owners in Northeast Michigan.

The “What’s in it for Me?” event is “designed to provide insights, resources, and networking opportunities to help businesses thrive.”

The event will be held on Wednesday, March 19, from noon to 3 p.m., inside the Rogers City Area Senior and Community Center. The free event includes a complimentary catered lunch, access to grant information and funding opportunities, entrepreneurial tools designed specifically for local businesses, and an opportunity to network with business organizations and economic agencies.

ADVERTISING

Book an in-person client dinner and earn up... Learn more

U.S. Bank - Sponsored

Attendees are encouraged to register in advance by clicking HERE.

The event is made possible through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration and is supported by Target Alpena Development Corporation, Rogers City Main Street, Rogers City United, and Rogers City Area Chamber of Commerce.

For more details, visit www.michigansbdc.org.