The Washtenaw County Office of Community and Economic Development is hosting their third annual Small Business Fair on Friday, March 14. This year's fair will connect local entrepreneurs with resources to help their business flourish. The fair is for anyone interested in entrepreneurship and will feature resources for those in any step of the business process. The event is free and will take place in person at Washtenaw Community College in the Morris Lawrence Building on East Huron River Drive from 9 am to 4 pm on Friday, March 14. Breakfast and lunch will be provided.

This year's fair will include speakers, a resource fair, a panel discussion, multiple workshop offerings, and time dedicated to networking.
