The event offers a unique opportunity for emerging entrepreneurs and early-stage business owners in Bay County to compete for a share of $11,000 in cash prizes while sharpening their business skills and growing their network.

Michelle Judd, small business consultant at the SBDC and one of the lead organizers of the pitch competition, characterizes the event as a celebration of the entrepreneurial spirit that drives Bay County.

“Our past participants have had a very positive experience with the pitch competition,” she said. “Not only do they build skills, but they also grow their peer network and brand awareness.”

“The Michigan SBDC and Business by the Bay Pitch gave me all of the tools I needed to fine-tune my plan, build my confidence and move my business forward,” said Jena Monville, owner of Princess and the Hound Mobile Pet Grooming Salon and 1st place winner of the 2023 competition. “Winning the pitch helped me get my salon recognized, inspired my marketing, and brought me a full client list.”

Participants selected for the program will receive:

- Practical training on marketing, finances, and pitching
- Personalized feedback and coaching from business experts
- Hands-on help developing a professional pitch deck
- Valuable connections with local mentors and business leaders.
